Swing and Turn, Jubilee

All out on the old railroad,
 'S'all out on the sea,
 'S'all out on the old railroad
 Far as eye can see
 Swing 'n' turn, Jubilee!
 Live 'n' learn, Jubilee!

Hardest work I ever done
 Working on the farm,
 Easiest work I ever done
 Swinging my true love's arm.

Coffee grows on the white-oak tree,
 Sugar runs in brandy,
 Boys as pure as a lump of gold,
 Girls as sweet as candy.

If I had a needle and thread,
 Fine as I could sew,
 Sew my true love to my side,
 And down this creek I'd go.

If I had nor horse to ride,
 I'd be found a-crawling,
 Up and down this rocky road
 Looking for my darling.

All out on the old railroad,
 'S'all out on the sea,
 'S'all out on the old railroad
 Far as eye can see
 Swing 'n' turn, Jubilee!
 Live 'n' learn, Jubilee!

"Jubilee IS a Ritchie Family gamesong, but I never did a "protective" copyright on it because it was collected from another source in the community- everyone around knew it. A lady named Marian Skein wrote it down at Ary, KY, and it was published by (Mr.) Lynn Rohrbough, Cooperative Recreation Service,
